2017 CAMP REPORT:

2017 has turned out to be a great year for campers at Cedar Hills Baptist Youth Camp. We hosted 1,797 campers through nine weeks of summer camp, our annual OYEAH! Spring Break Retreat, and numerous other events including the Cedar Hills Bible Conference, father/son camp outs, and other small group retreats.

As a result of churches who faithfully present the gospel at camp, 105 students came to know Christ, countless others have grown in their faith and renewed spiritual commitments. Be in prayer for six students who responded to God's call to pursue vocational ministry. Many of them faithfully serve churches in various ways. Pray that God will continue to use Cedar Hills to call shepherds after His own heart. Research indicates that parents are "the single most important social influence on the spiritual lives of adolescence" and that healthy children have significant relationships "with at least three adults besides her or his parents" (Richard Ross, Parenting with Kingdom Purpose). Pray for parents and other adults to disciple these young students who will feed the coming generations with knowledge and understanding (Jer 3:15). Pray for spiritual maturity, relentless faith, and undying devotion to Jesus Christ!

Thank You!

In 2017, your donations rebuilt the girl's swimming pool, replaced the pool fence, repainted the nurse's station, refurbished the playground, opened the RV park, purchased a new ice machine and installed over twenty new toilets. We are grateful for the many churches, businesses, and individual donors who make these improvements possible. Many give in various ways: monthly offerings, donated materials, and our AMP program. The AMP form can be found on the reverse side and on our website (CedarHillsBYC.org). Thanks in advance for the many ways you and your churches support Cedar Hills.

In Christ,
Dwayne Pate (Camp Manager)

“Train up a child
in the way he should go:
and when he is old,
he will not depart from it”
(Proverbs 22:6)

Proverbs 22:6 is the Cedar Hills mission. Multiple weeks of summer camp and numerous events during the off-season are opportunities to “train up” the next generation. Cedar Hills is humbled and honored by the many students who are saved, strengthened, and surrendered to ministry every year! However, we know that discipleship is a lifelong process with daily implications. Below are four ways parents and churches can daily train children who become lifetime followers of Christ:

PRAY DAILY: Scripture stresses the importance of prayer. Jesus taught that prayer helps us to resist temptation, to submit to God’s will, and to humbly acknowledge our need for Him (Matt 26:41; Luke 11:2; 18:13). Deuteronomy 6:7 teaches that every waking hour is an opportunity to train children to love God. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner, not to mention driving to the next destination, reclining at home, or a spontaneous event are all opportunities to pray with our children.

WORSHIP WEEKLY: Scripture emphasizes the weekly habit of corporate worship and exemplifies family discipleship (Gen 2:3; Job 1:4-6; Acts 16:31-33; 20:7; Heb 10:25). Parents ought to be encouraged knowing we are the biggest spiritual influence (outside of the Holy Spirit and the Holy Word) in a child’s life. This can motivate us to be intentional each week to invest in the spiritual growth of our children. This may be formally gathering around Scripture or informally discussing spiritual truths at the family table. Being intentional is key!

SERVE MONTHLY: Jesus came in the form of a servant and we are called to follow his example (Matt 10:24; Phil 2:5-7). Serving regularly as a family will provide teaching opportunities and help families to grow in relationship with one another. This may include taking on a project at church, helping a widow(er) with some landscaping, or volunteering at a shelter. Service opportunities abound in churches: providing Thanksgiving meals to families in need, Christmas gifts to less fortunate children, school supplies to a local elementary, or servicing the church van before a road trip to Cedar Hills!

GO ANNUALLY: Parents, churches, and children all benefit from an annual focus of discipleship and ministry. A week at camp provides both! Children and parents will also be blessed in planning a family mission trip or including a service project with their annual vacation. These short term camps, mission trips, and vacations may help a child to realize his or her calling to a lifetime of ministry and missions!

Annual Financial Report
The camps fiscal year runs from Oct 1 thru Sep 30. The annual financial report will be included in the winter newsletter.

Mission & Vision

“Where there is no vision, people perish”
(Prov 29:18).

In August, the Board of Trustees began discussing the future needs of Cedar Hills, including housing, recreation, worship facilities, staffing, and the many aspects of providing the best experience for our campers. The board will meet at the camp Nov. 11 from 9-5 pm to begin mapping out a 10-year plan.

“...in the multitude of counsellors there is safety” (Prov 11:14). Churches who attend camp are invited to send “messengers” to provide a camper’s perspective and expert advice. Lunch and dinner will be provided for all who attend. Please RSVP to the camp manager, Dwayne Pate at (405)929-9549 or at pateyouth@hotmail.com.

Our goal is to assess needs and to be good stewards of our resources. Our mission is to reach more children for Christ. Our prayer is that God will give us a vision that is bigger than ourselves. There are currently more needs than resources and we pray that God will continue to use his people to provide in miraculous ways!
